

Hua Deng, Nanocyl S.A, Belgium

Hua Deng obtained his Bachelor degree from Harbin Institute of Technology in Materials Processing Science and Engineering. His M Eng degree was awarded by Queen Mary, University of London in Materials Science with Business in 2004. From 2004 to 2008, Hua completed his Ph.D study at Queen Mary, University of London in Professor Ton Peijs' group, titled "Multi-wall carbon nanotube/Polypropylene composites and tapes". During that period, he was involved in European projects including: Nanofire and Inteltex. From June 2008, he started working for Nanocyl S.A. (Belgium).